

TOUR ITINERARY FOR: TLC Concierge (bookings@tlc.lk)

Galle Day Tour

Travel back to Sri Lanka's colonial past as you walk along the cobble streets within the walls of Galle Fort. Explore the neighboring towns of Koggala & Unawatuna and enjoy an evening sunset on Unawatuna Beach.

Listing Image	Description	Schedule
	Galle Fort, Galle Sitting on a rocky peninsula sheltering the port of Galle, the Galle Fort is a living monument to Sri Lanka's colonial past, and an epitome of old world charm. The best example of a fortified city...	Day 1 at 9 am
	National Maritime Museum, Galle The National Maritime Museum lies within the historic Galle Fort and is housed in a cavernous warehouse built by the Dutch dating back to 1671. The country's rich history of seafaring and its marine..	Day 1 at 10 am
	Galle National Museum, Galle The Galle National Museum, housed in one of the oldest buildings from the Dutch era in the Galle Fort, provides good insight into the traditional cultural heritage of the south with its wide range of	Day 1 at 11 am
	Rumassala Sanjeevani Drops, Unawatuna Rumassala is a small hill near Galle. It was yet another part of the "sanjivani"-bearing mountain that Hanuman carried on his back on the way to the island. It was also said to have been one of Sita's	Day 1 at 1 pm
	Koggala Folk Museum, Koggala The Koggala Folk Museum is housed in the ancestral home of one of Sri Lanka's most respected and prolific writers, Martin Wickremasinghe. This is quite befitting as much of the writers work revolved	Day 1 at 2 pm
	Unawatuna Beach, Unawatuna Unawatuna is a horseshoe shaped bay that features one of Sri Lanka's finest beaches. Protected by a reef, turquoise waters lap at the golden, palm fringed shoreline creating a picture perfect beach	Day 1 at 4 pm